

Global Marketing

The World is your market!

International Consultancy helps businesses reach out to global markets. With the increased breadth of products and pricing, profit margins are increased. The combination of export and import helps companies within the U.S. and foreign countries with a focus on Latin America. The CAFTA treaty of 2006 has enabled efficient exchange between our closest neighbors leveraging strengths by eliminating trade barriers.

When considering expanding your business to foreign investments and acquisitions, you can depend on us to assist you with all your important decisions. We take into account and advise you of global and regional laws and customs that can affect your investment saving you time and money.

We take the guess work out of Global Marketing!